

Teachers—print out these Rally to Read bookmarks for your students!

A community is like a treasure map, and each place is a landmark that helps us understand where we live and how everything connects.

Color in a house each time you read a book about community this month!

RallytoRead.org

Discover the hidden lives of nighttime wildlife through stories and facts that illuminate the wonders of the dark.

Color in a leaf each time you read a book about nature this month!

RallytoRead.org

Celebrations offer a unique window into traditions, values, and community spirit. Share the diverse reasons people come together.

Color in a star each time you read a book about celebrations this month!

RallytoRead.org

Wellness means eating healthy foods, staying active, making time to rest, and taking care of your feelings and emotions.

Color in a heart each time you read a book about wellness this month!

RallytoRead.org

Changemakers are inventors, explorers, and thinkers who have transformed the world through discovery and innovation.

Color in a hand each time you read a book about changemakers this month!

RallytoRead.org

The ability to express creativity through visual art, music, movement, or storytelling is essential in shaping the world around us.

Color in a music note each time you read a book about imagination this month!

RallytoRead.org

